

education northern illinois university
2015–2018 | Visual Communications major

waubonsee community college
2013–2015 | Undergraduate experience frey design group

2021–2023 | Learned the process of storytelling through video editing and post-production. Gained further experience in Adobe After Effects and Premiere Pro. Gained additional experience in web design and development with Wordpress and PHP. Gained an understanding of server management and how to work within a professional web development process.

rule29
2017–2019 | Gained experience in the development of branding systems, digital marketing, and print. Gained an understanding of paper, printing processes, and material costs through direct collaboration with numerous vendors. Learned to manage projects for collection of personal clients, including development of the 2020 UNICEF® Snowflake Ball brand and collateral, which raised a record-breaking, $5.1 million for children around the world.

northern illinois university
2016–2018 | Learned to work with a team of marketing students, designing promotional collateral, event signage, and digital displays as lead designer for the Holmes Student Center marketing department.

rw designs
2010–2016 | Principal for freelance design firm working with musicians and businesses around the world. Learned to market and sell to prospective customers, manage a portfolio of clients, pitch and present design work, and understand the importance of time management.

strata g design
2012–2017 | Learned to take direction from creative directors and execute their vision through various freelance design projects. Learned HTML, CSS, Javascript, and PHP coding languages.

proud fox gallery
2007–2009 | Learned the importance of honest work, dedication, and attention to detail. Cleaned employee workspaces, tracked all shipments of framing materials, stocked and organized mat board inventory.

awards graphic design usa
2020 | Packaging design award winner for Wicked Root Cannabis

emma mebane scholarship
2012 | Artwork was selected to win the Emma Mebane Design Scholarship

References available upon request.